Commissioner for Patents

The amendment filed on 11/19/2007 is not fully responsive to the final rejection mailed on 09/19/2007. Specifically, applicant has attempted to overcome the U.S.C. 112, first paragraph rejections set forth in the final rejection by making general reference to large portions of the specification. However, such vague citations do not constitute support for the claimed subject matter, and such a response is therefore not responsive to the rejections made in the final office action. No new time period for reply is set [See MPEP 714.03].
